McGuire Sponsel

McGuire Sponsel is a trusted resource that partners with CPA firms to strengthen client relationships through innovative tax and financing strategies. We understand the value of the CPA/client relationship, so we provide only those solutions that truly bring the greatest value. We are committed to our clients and intently focused on their needs. We promise dedication and high-quality service that not only helps our clients achieve, but also maintain, consistent growth.

We provide our clients with a team of recognized experts that specialize in cost segregation, R&D tax credits, IC-DISCs, financing opportunities, and economic incentives. We develop long term relationships and the necessary solutions for each client's situation.

We work as an extension of our partner CPA firms – providing value added services that help firms stand out with their clients and prospects. Our efforts have established McGuire Sponsel as a leading technical resource to CPAs across the country. Our dedication to superior service and consistent, detailed methodologies reaffirms our commitment to the CPA industry.
